F. F. BOBBITT ON ROCKCASTLE AND ITS PEOPLE.

MT. VERNON, KY., Feb. 15, 1901.

EDITOR MT. VERNON SIGNAL: Circuit Court convened Monday with the usual large crowd of hardy yeomanry. The bone and sinew of the country. Yes.

Kings and princes, they may flourish, Or they may fade.
A breath can make them,
As a breath hath made

But a bold peasantry Their country's hope and pride, When once destroyed, can never be supplied.

The crowd in the Court house would compare favorably with the same number of men in Lincoln, with perhaps less money in the bank but more in their pockets.

The able Jurist, Judge Morrow, is on the bench and gave the grand jury an able exposition of the law. I am proud to know that I read law under the instructions of a Judge, as able and famous for his learning. I believe all the good law I know I learned from Judge Morrow and the bad I have imbibed from such men as Blackstone, Coke and Lyttleton. I don't know of but one point upon which the learned Judge and I differ, and that is upon this point: I assume that a grand jury is a mere accusing jury to enquire, whether or not there be sufficient evidence or proof against the accused to call upon him to answer before a trial jury, before the Judge. Often not half the witnesses are before the grand jury and not more than half the testimony from them, and even before the trial jury it sometimes takes the shrewdest Commonwealth's Attorney to extort the truth from the reluctant lips of a dishonest witness.

If the grand jury have sufficient evidence before them to justify an indictment, the defendant should be called upon to answer before the Judge and trial jury. But if the grand jury do not believe, (but not beyond a reasonable doubt) there is sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction, they should not indict. But the reasonable doubt that acquits so many guilty men prevails alone before the petit jury. But several other Circuit Judges are with Judge Morrow, though none so able as he. They may be right, and Blackstone and I, and the older authors, may be wrong.

Well, I am delighted with this beautiful mountain city, their true, brave, loyal people, their fine school and College, their learned Professors, their manly pupils, and the beautiful buds of sweet womanhood, are a delight to the eye. If there is an ugly woman in this town, she always hides when I come—I have never seen her. This city has the grandest and noblest looking Bar I ever saw. The grandest looking Circuit and County Clerks, and the kindest and noblest looking Jailor. Both Circuit Court Clerk and Jailor named Griffin, and are cousins, and a person misbehaving above, the handsome Circuit Clerk sends the delinquent to his cousin below for proper correction; and Sheriff Catron, one of my old pupils in Pulaski, the little fellow that used to hunt up the eggs at the barn, and cracking two of them together, would take them to the house, saying, "here mother, are two eggs, the mice tramped on and broke, may I have them to eat?" Then J. J. Woods and H. L. Tate, his polite deputies, and their brilliant County Judge and County Attorney, and their able Bar is an ornament to the profession, and to the human race.

It has been said,—perhaps I have said,—that when nature hid away her precious metals, her favorite resorts were the rocky defiles of the mountains, and even now, when the old Dame forms the design of creating a great man, and stamping upon his noble brow, the impress of genius, or a beautiful woman, which only lacks an appendage (wings,) to make her an angel, her favorite resort is still the mountains. Nearly all the wealthy and prominent men in Lincoln came from Pulaski or Wayne. Mt. Vernon also has a bank and many elegant residences, and the desire for good roads, facilities for getting their products to market, and for travel over their beautiful country, has of late, received much attention and the useful and ornamental work goes nobly on. May it never stop but go gloriously on. "Like Freedom's battle, once begun, Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son Though baffled oft—'tis ever won."

—Your admiring visitor, FOUNTAIN FOX BOBBITT.

Mrs. Edith Pence, who died at Cincinnati February 8th., was buried here at the M. E. church Sunday evening, at 3 o'clock, where her many friends and relatives met to pay a last tribute of respect. The funeral was preached by Rev. B. Ragan, the presiding elder. She was the daughter of H. Painter, of this place, and the wife of Rev. John Pence. A faithful wife, a loving mother and a devoted Christian lady, and aided her husband greatly in his work for Christ. She leaves a husband, two little ones, and many relatives to mourn her loss, but she has gone where there will be no more suffering or death.

Oh! the ties are broken Never more on earth to be united,
But in heaven, Oh how sweet To meet our loved ones Where all will be pure joy.

Weep not dear ones
For the one who has left us, Our loss is only her gain, Let us only strive to meet her Where there is neither sorrow nor pain. —Lula.

Crouching

In every cough there lurks, like a crouching tiger, the probabilities of consumption.

The throat and lungs become rough and inflamed from coughing and the germs of consumption find an easy entrance. Take no chances with the dangerous foe.

For 60 years there has been a perfect cure. What a record! Sixty years of cures.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

soothes and heals the wounded throat and lungs. You escape an attack of consumption with all its terrible suffering and uncertain results.

There is nothing so bad for the throat and lungs as coughing.

A 25c. bottle will cure an ordinary cough; harder coughs will need a 50c. size; the dollar bottle is cheapest in the long run.

"One of my sons was spitting blood with a high fever and was very ill. We could hardly see any signs of life in him. The doctors did him no good. But a bottle of your Cherry Pectoral cured him and saved his life." C. G. ANDERSON, Nov. 10, 1898. Pukwana, S. Dak.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce Chesley Payne,

as a candidate for Magistrate in the Fourth district, subject to the action of the Republican party.

GEORGE CARTER, a negro, who assaulted Mrs. William E. Board at Paris, last December, was taken from the Paris jail last Sunday night by a mob and hanged to the iron arch just in front of the Court house door. The negro fled, when he committed the crime and was arrested only a few days ago, which accounts for his not being hung sooner. It is passing strange, indeed, that those brutes in human form, will never learn that as long as such crimes are committed, death will swiftly pay the penalty, and very often in horrid form. We are not in favor of mob law, as a rule, but it is far preferable to a state of affairs that might exist were those fiends left to the slow process of the law, as it is too often enforced today. The North raise a great cry every time one of those brutes is swung up for this crime; but when one of them dares molest a white woman on the northern banks of the Ohio, he may as well say his prayers—he is a goner. This race problem is a weighty one and the statesmen of the present and the future, will more and more find, that it is no small affair.

JUDGE EVANS, who has proved himself to be a politician rather than a jurist, was reversed by United States Circuit Court of Appeals in the election cases from Louisville against Crites, Mullen, Locke and O'Neill, because in the instructions to the jury he referred to the character of the defendants, when no evidence had been produced relating to their character. They were sentenced for a term of three years, charged with conspiring to prevent colored voters from voting.
The case of Lackey, of Middlesboro, who was sent up for seven months and fined a thousand dollars was ordered dismissed, as the section of the Statute under which he was tried was unconstitutional. We have come to the conclusion that, if we can get an impartial judge, we will lose nothing by Kentucky being divided into two judicial districts.

MARK HANNA's ship subsidy bill is about gone under, and one more steal from the people is thwarted, and some of Mark's pets who contributed so liberally to the campaign fund, will fail to find it a very paying investment—in that one particular. It is a little strange that it doesn't pass; we certainly fail to understand. It is generally supposed that what Mark proposes, no Republican dares oppose. But it seems, he played a losing game this time. Well, Mark has our sympathies(?) It would be so nice if he owned the world and had it nicely fenced in, and then could get a lease on the moon during the remainder of his natural life, after this life of course he will have other matters to attend to.

Two ex-United States Attorney Generals, Miller and Harmon, men of different political views—agree that the only way to suppress the trusts is by repealing the protective tariffs on all goods manufactured by the great combinations of capital. Yes, Mr. Harmon, a Republican, says this is the way to do it but politicians of a smaller caliber say "no, we must have a tariff to protect our 'infant industries'".
Poor little things! how our heart goes out in sympathy for them.
What a pity there are no other worlds for them to conquer.

GEN. DE WET, with his Boer force, is still giving trouble to the British, and seems to be out-generaling them all along the line. If he could wallop the life out of them it would be a blessing to the civilized world. We have nothing against the British, but principle is at stake—the greatest known among governments.

The fact, that W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley will have to hunt other hiding places from that which they have so long enjoyed seems very evident. Senator James W.
Fortune, of Jeffersonville, is very anxious to introduce a bill concerning the two gentlemen, and if he and Senator Stilwell can agree the bill will be introduced at once. It will advance a constitutional agreement and will carefully avoid instructing the Governor, at the same time expressing the sense of the legislature that papers for the return of Taylor and Finley should be honored.

LIVINGSTON

Mr. L. T. Stewart was in the city Saturday on business.

Mr. Logan Thompson, of Mt.
Vernon, was with us this week.

W. G. Mullins, ex-sheriff, is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rome Adams.
Mr. W. C. Mullins, who has been very ill, is now much improved.

Mr. Alf. Owens is home on a visit, from his sawmill in Bell county.

Mr. Thos. Farley (Red) was in Mt. Vernon this week on legal business.

Mr. H. W. Bowman has been very ill with the grippe, but is now much better.

We are glad to see Mrs. Sue Mullins out on the streets again, after a bad spell of grippe.

Our old friend, Brack Graves, has been on the sick list for some time, but is now much better.

Mr. Will Mullins and wife, of Brush Creek, were here visiting their son, Mr. Ballard Mullins.

T. D. Mullins took the Continental Degree Saturday night, and of course reached after it. T. D. don't believe all you hear.

Mr. Shannon McKenney has returned from his trip to Lebanon Junction, where he went to care for the late Arthur Owens.

"Hon." Hardy Patterson, of Va., is in the city on a visit to his friends (who are as numberless as the sands.)

Mr. Chas. Burnes has returned from Paris almost recovered from his illness and does look "so sweet" with his whiskers.

Mr. Frank Jones has moved his store from the "country" to the city—and now occupies the property lately occupied by W. S. Cummins.

John Brown, attorney of Mt. Vernon was here this week, of course John gets lonesome in your dead town, and has to come to the city to "brace" up.

Miss Luna Herrin has gone to Quail on a visit to her Grand Parents, to be gone about a month.
There is one who, "will miss me when I'm gone."

Say, what is the matter with Soward, he does not make his regular trips to the farm—what did they say to you Soward—Oh, he just stepped in from Klondike.

Some of the parents of babies around here seem to have some dispute in regard to the size, weight and beauty of respective little ones, and have some heated arguments.

Our new postmistress, Mrs. Roller, has moved the post office to the side-room of the W. S. Cummins store, where she has fitted up a very nice office—one that does credit to the city.

J. Y. Brown rode the goat the other night, the "Billy" carried him to Pittsburg and dumped him at the depot, where he was check-ed in as station agent. Can't say as to whether John changed thumbs or not on the trip.

Mr. E. Owens, of Junction City, is here to take the place of W. W.
Wright, who takes the position of Dispatcher Mudd, who has gone to Southern points in search of health which we hope he may regain.

Of the twelve or fourteen business houses in our city, none is more popular than the furniture house of Blankenship & Mullins, who are doing a thriving business.
The two Johns deserve success as both are estimable gentlemen. Success to you boys.

Prof. Dickerson is teaching one of the finest normal schools that has been held in Eastern Kentucky.
It is surprising, when we notice the improvement made by his pupils. Young teachers wishing to improve, can do no better than attend our normal.

'Squire Matt Ballard has been troubled with one of his hands, and fearing bad results, called Dr.
Childress, who on examination, decided it very serious. Matt did not seem to care so much for the hand, but asked the Dr. Do you think I am able to do any work about the house? The Dr. answered "no," and Matt was happy.

The L. O. T. M's seem to be the coming society of Kentucky. The Lodge here are doing work second to none in the state. Nearly every meeting they have some "poor" sister to ride the goat (no side saddle allowed) at their last meeting two were inducted into the mysteries. The L. O. T. M. have secured the services of H. M. Wills for an entertainment on Saturday night. "Success Ladies."

E. S. Albright, of the Signal, was with us Saturday visiting his numberless friends, but Ed took so much of my time that my letter this week will be short. Ed is a great lover of poems. I undertook to learn him one, but Lord, his head is too thick. Thinking perhaps Judge R. G. Williams (who is quite an elocutionist) might want to recite it at some entertainment, I will send it to the Signal—
The boy stood on the burning deck, Selling peanuts by the peck.
Beside him stood the girl in blue, Who said she'd take a peck or two.
—No, thanks, Judge, keep your change.

This Letter is written from the "Hall of Sorrow," from which I will direct all my letters hereafter and sign my name "Stub".

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a seri-

A FIREMAN'S CLOSE CALL.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C.
W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and, after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by all Druggists. Price 50 cents.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Theo Wesley

Sam McClure selling liquor unlawfully, was continued. Joel Stittles, breach of the peace $25 and cost. Walker Prewitt and Jesse Heath, charged with petit larceny, 30 days in the county jail. Mattie Townsend selling liquor unlawfully continued and warrant of arrest issued for witnesses. Adams Express Co., for delivering liquor to a minor, judgement for the defendant.

The following are the indictments found by the grand jury up to yesterday morning:—W. M. Cunnagim for voluntary manslaughter. Same for carrying concealed deadly weapons, W. M. Sparks for malicious shooting and wounding. Peter Leger for drawing a deadly weapon on another, same for carry a pistol, Hiram Ash for carrying concealed weapons, Henry Hellard selling liquor unlawfully. Jerry Lunsford, Peter Leger, W. M. Leger and Fred Ballard, each charged with breach of the peace.

THURSDAY.

There were no cases tried yesterday; only a few orders made and court adjourned until this morning.

WABD

J. M. Norton's family have gripped. Mrs. J. A. Moore is on the sick list.

M. C. Sowder returned from Wooldridge, Tenn., last week.

Wm. Price left last week for Laurel county to sell fruit trees.

W. P. Payne, of near Bee Lick, was visiting here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Alice Debord, of Level Green, was visiting her sister, Mrs. T. J. Graves, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Payne visited their daughter, Mrs. S. J. Kinley at Pine Hill, Saturday and Sunday.

The families of J. W. Cash and R. L. Bray have been down with gripped, but are improving at this writing.

A little three-year-old son of Jas. Payne's caught fire Sunday evening while its mother was milking and would, no doubt have burned to death had not another seven-year-old brother thrown water on him and screamed for help. He is now getting along nicely.

W. R. HENDERSON
A Noble Boy Passes Away.

"To live is to die," but death often comes when least expected. The people of our little town were made to weep on yesterday morning, when Dr. Lawrence broke the news that "Willie is dying." Death is sad in any form, but sader still, when a young man, just in the bloom of young manhood and had before him as bright a future as this one and then be cut down.

He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson, was 22 years old the 10th. of last August, graduated from the college here last June and had taught two public schools in the county. While, he had never, as yet, identified himself with any religious denomination, his every day walk, proved him to be a Christian, and there is no doubt but that there awaits him a golden crown. Although, he was sick about two weeks, yet it was only thought, by the family and his friends to be a severe attack of the grip and that he would soon be alright again, but on Monday the doctor discovered that it was going into pneumonia, on Tuesday he began to grow worse, and nothing the physician could do would bring any relief, but continued to grow worse until the end came at 7:30 yesterday morning. The burial will take place at the Lewis burying ground today.

FROM BRODHEAD

These are the first lines I have ever written for the Signal. I have been in Kentucky three years today, have lived in Rockcastle county during the time; am a subscriber to the Signal and enjoy reading it very much. I am interested in the good of the great State; have tried to be as loyal and brave as the true Kentuckian; rejoice in every act and effort to make her people better. In reading the sketch in the last issue of the Signal concerning the acts of Mrs. Carrie Nation in her work of destroying saloons; I am persuaded to ask permission of the writer if he will not take a different view of the subject. We are bound to believe that her intentions are good. As unreasonable as it seems for a woman to attempt to save a nation from such a curse, it is no more unreasonable than it seemed for Christ to attempt to save the world; though it is to be believed that Christ lived longer and succeeded better than Mrs. Nation perhaps will, for no doubt there are plenty of cowards who like Judas Iscariot would not only put Christ to death, but would sell the souls of the human race for a few dollars. Be it a legitimate business or not, it is no more the intention of God, for this the greatest of nations, the fairest of lands, inhabited by the proudest and best of humanity, to be blighted by this great evil; than it was Christ's intention for his house of prayer to be made a den of thieves. What do you think of Christ going into the temple, driving out the money changers, turning over the table, and talking like a man who meant business? They were doing a more honorable business than saloon keepers. If every mother whose life has been destroyed, whose home has been blighted, and whose husband and sons have been driven to the grave and to perdition, could join Mrs. Nation in her undertaking there would be an army strong enough to sweep every saloon from the face of the earth, and I believe that the strongest voice that Heaven could raise would proclaim such a victory. If the worst drunkard in the land could be sober and capable of thinking, and see what I have seen and heard in the last twelve months, of which a saloon was the cause, he would surely scotch his way of doing, and as Buck Varnon says, "hoist his head and go the other direction as fast as he could."

COLLEGE NOTES.

The College has had the good fortune to add to its Faculty for the spring term, Miss Owings, of Danville, Ky. Miss Owings is a graduate of Caldwell College; having received the degree of Bachelor of Art, from that Institution in June, 1900; and carrying off the honors of her class. Her record in College was one not excelled in thoroughness and talent. We congratulate ourselves upon having so well-equipped and able a scholar added to our Faculty. Miss Owings has charge of the Latin, Greek and English classes.

Dr. Ewers has recently moved to his new home on West Main street, which he bought some months ago from Mr. Abel Pennington. The Doctor has added many improvements to the property, which, together with Mr. Krueger's new brick residence, have made quite a change in the west end of town. We hope much happiness for our Principal and his family in this their first Kentucky home.

Scarlet fever had its day and long ago left us. We didn't greatly object to it, as a disease, for it's one of no small consequence but now, since we have thoroughly recovered from the fright it gave us, chickenpox has come and seems not yet ready to depart. It has interlarded some with the study, if not with the play, of the Primary, and not content with that has even invaded the Intermediate. It would seem that the study of Latin, Greek and Higher Mathematics tends to make one proof against so infantile and undignified a disease, for the Collegiates have had no case of chickenpox as yet.

Miss Cloyde, of Crab Orchard, has been absent from the Collegiate department for the past week, suffering with a most painful felon. It was reported on Tuesday that acute blood poisoning had set in and her condition was most serious. We earnestly hope it is nothing more than mere report, and that she may soon be well and able to resume her school work.

Misses Clyde Cass, Bessie Poynter, Kitty Poynter, Mea Brown and May Magee have entered the piano class. Mr. Charlie Whitehead, the guitar class. The Music department up to date, has an enrollment of thirty-one.

Miss May Magee of Livingston, is again with us, in the Institute, after a four week's absence.

We are sorry to lose from our ranks Master McKenzie Brown, of the Collegiate, who has moved with his mother to Georgetown, to make that their future home. From playground, class and Philomatheon, he will be sadly missed. As he progresses through the classes of Georgetown College we confidently expect to hear the same reports of him, that we have in our College, where he stood second to none.

The String Band will meet next Monday evening at 6:30, with Mr. Sim Davis, who is not yet well enough to meet with us in the College music-room, and has invited the band out to his home for that evening.

We are glad to note that Mr. Walter Bustle's accident of Friday evening, has had no serious consequences. As he was leaving the Hall after the entertainment, his knee was severely hurt by being caught in one of the patent seats. Dislocation of the knee-cap was feared, but he fortunately escaped such a result.

The ground-hog, this time, has behaved very respectably about the weather, so we are not discussing the question as to the date of his appearance. He may come out and test the weather on Feb. 23rd or 24th, and we care not, if only he'd leave it cold, clear and bright. We are well pleased with his programme this time, for it is just the weather to make both study and amusement delightful.

GOOCHLAND

Dr. R. H. Lewis and W. H. Jones were here on the eighth on business.

Mr. John Young's small boy, who has been hurt for some time, improves slowly.

Cross-tie making is going slow here at present, bad weather is holding the boys off.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McGuire were visiting relatives near Dispaputanta last Sunday.

Aster McGuire, of Clark's Station, Jefferson county, is visiting relatives here at present.

Mr. Geo. Gatliff eased himself out of his night cap and went to Wildie Tuesday on business.

A good many were here last Friday to attend the trial, but all got left as the suit died in the bud.

Rev. C. A. Vanwinkle, of Berea, filled his appointment at Sycamore last Saturday night, but through some misunderstanding there was a small audience.

Frank Reed and Geo. Parker, two small boys, were out playing last Monday and Reed accidentally, cut all of Parker's fingers off of one hand with an ax.

Mr. Grover McGuire, who died on the night of the 5th inst., leaves a wife and many relatives near here to mourn for him. Please allow us to express our sincere sympathy for those he has left behind. May God assist them in their troubles.

Danger of Colds and La Grippe.
The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Theo Wesley Druggist.

Theo Wesley the druggist, will refund you your money if you are not satisfied after using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness, constipation and headache. Price, 25 cents. Samples free.
